Peer Educator

Job Description

Position type: Part-time volunteer (3 hours/week)
Reports to: Team Lead(s)

You
You’re a returning undergraduate or graduate student at McMaster University with an interest in wellness, harm reduction, health equity, and related topics. You’re open to broadening your understanding of “wellness” and keen to share your knowledge with your peers to make a healthier campus community.

Us
We are Wellness Education, a sub-department of the Student Wellness Centre (SWC) consisting of an Education Manager, two Wellness Educators, three work-study students, and a group of 70 volunteers who work out of the SWC lounge (PGCLL 201). We are passionate about promoting student health and wellness.

The Position
Peer Educators are responsible for working cooperatively to deliver workshops, provide evidence-based health information, and promote wellness-related resources available on and off campus. They act as representatives of the SWC among the student body. After completing preliminary training, Peer Educators will sit on one of our six Wellness Outreach Teams: Active Living, Food Literacy, Mental Health, Sexual Health, Substance, and Graduate Wellness.

Training
- Spring training in person (half day before summer break)
- Summer training through Avenue to Learn (one hour per week)
- Fall training in person (one full day)
- Winter refresher training in person (half day)
- Year-long training in person (optional workshops to enhance your wellness-related knowledge and skills)

Job responsibilities
- Attend weekly team meetings
- Develop and deliver programs, campaigns, and events to educate peers on topics in your wellness area with guidance from your Team Lead and the Wellness Educators
- Hold weekly “lounge hours” in PGCLL 201
- Write articles for the SWC website and semi-annual Wellness@Mac newsletter
